7. Clandestine Psychological Warfare Course #12 began on Monday, 10 November, with 12 full-time students and two auditors.

8. Operational Security Course #1 began on Monday, 10 November, with nine senior staff officers participating.

9. The initial presentation of a Stay-Behind Operations Course is scheduled for 24 November.

10. Communist Party Operations Course #10 will begin 1 December.

11. Clandestine Psychological Warfare Course #13 will begin 15 December.

12. The Director of Training participated in a briefing of [redacted] representatives on Thursday, 13 November. The subject of the discussion was the importance of a career service in a national intelligence agency, with particular attention to the personnel and training aspects of such a program.

13. The Director of Training has received informal information that paramilitary training requirements for the next twelve months' period will average less than fourteen students per month. This includes new employees as well as old employees who have had no training or wish refresher training. In view of this radical reduction in requirements, the DCI has directed the Office of Training to make immediate plans for other utilization of the Office of Training site [redacted].

With the concurrence of the DD/A and the DD/P, the Director of Training proposes to hold the Operations Course [redacted]

It is expected that the above plan will be in full operation by mid-January 1953.

14. A combined total of 184 students is presently enrolled in the introductory and self-study courses in the Language Training Center. During the week, the Language Laboratory was used for a total of 492 student hours.
